MARKET PREVIEW

US: A promise by European leaders to help Greece avoid default sent U.S. stocks sharply higher Wednesday for the third straight day. The Dow Jones industrial average rose 1.3 percent, to close at 11,246.73.

Asia: Asian stocks bounced on Thursday yet investors remained wary that obstacles which policymakers face in Europe could weigh on the euro and Asian currencies in the medium term.

India: Snapping 3-day losing streak, the BSE benchmark Sensex today surged 242 points as funds bought IT stocks led by heavyweight Infosys, amid the rupee falling to nearly two-year low and firming global markets. Investors picked up IT stock on expectations of improved revenues as the rupee fell to two year low against the US dollar. The IT sector index gained the most - up 4.27 % at 5,039.74. Barring capital goods, all sectoral indices remained higher. Markets are expected to remain range bound before the announcement of RBI policy tomorrow.

Economy: Indian inflation inched closer to the double-digit mark in August, rising to 9.78 % on the back of soaring prices of food and manufactured products, which may prompt the RBI to continue with its monetary tightening policy. Sentiment at Asia's top companies fell in the third quarter, hitting its lowest level since the fourth quarter of 2009 as doubts about the strength of the global economy weighed, a survey showed. S&P on Wednesday warned that a widening of the European debt crisis could have severe consequences for German banks. Retail sales in the U.S. unexpectedly stagnated in August as a lack of employment and limited income growth restrained demand, highlighting the risk the economy will stall. Prices paid by producers were also unchanged in August, according to the Labor Department, while so-called core costs that exclude food and fuel rose less than forecast.

Commodities: Gold fell on Wednesday as urgent efforts to end the euro zone crisis drew investors back toward riskier markets. Spot gold was last down 0.7% at $1,821.10 an ounce by 2:49 p.m. EDT (1849 GMT). Brent crude rose on Wednesday on hopes the euro zone's debt crisis would ease, while US oil futures fell following data showing a surprise increase in US product inventories.

Currency: Falling for the eighth successive session, the rupee today slumped to nearly two-year low of 48.01 in early trade as lingering eurozone debt worries prompted importers, oil refiners and banks to make a beeline for buying the US dollar. Rupee rebounded to end the day 5 paise lower at 47.64/65.

The Indian central bank sold dollars for the first time since Lehman Brothers triggered credit crisis to avert disorderly movement in the currency as it fell to its worst levels in two years. A depreciating rupee may compound the macroeconomic problems as prices of imported goods will surge and worsen the current account deficit. India won't be able to take advantage even if commodity prices ease due to global slowdown (ET)
